

Sleeper Public Library News

Fine libraries everywhere exist with public funds, but it is through private gifts that they flourish. – Anonymous

Looking for Used Books

Do you have books at home that you don't know what to do with? We take donations of used books in good condition here at the library. The majority of our donations are used for our Book Sale but we also put some on our shelves. Think of us the next time you have some books you want to give away.

100th Anniversary Sleeper Public Library Cookbooks for sale

We have our 100th Anniversary Cookbooks on sale at the Library right now! These make wonderful gifts. We will be selling them for only $7.50 each. They feature many recipes from local people in our community. Stop in and pick one up today.

Senior Center

Connected to the Sleeper Public Library is the Senior Center. It can easily seat 50 people and is great for bridal or baby showers or small parties. There is a small fee of $50.00 to rent this facility. It is free to all non-profit groups. If you have any questions about the center you can call the Library at 989-658-8901 during normal business hours.
