Local Author Book Signing, Thursday, Oct. 2 - 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Local author Janis Stein pays tribute to Huron County, Michigan's one-room schoolhouses in her new book, Schools of Yesteryear, Volume I, featuring the country schools of Sand Beach & Sherman Townships in Huron County, Michigan.

Take a stroll back in time to the days when one teacher taught all grades within the same schoolroom, and the schoolhouse was the focal point of the community. From baking potatoes for lunch on the potbellied stove and anxious children performing their skit in the annual Christmas program to learning the three R's and all students drinking out of the same long-handled dipper, Schools of Yesteryear takes a nostalgic look at life in the one-room schoolhouse.

This 216-page, hardcover keepsake makes the perfect coffee table book and contains over 400 photographs and in-depth written histories, preserving those schoolhouse memories of old. Ms. Stein's book has earned endorsements from the Huron County Historical Society, the White Rock Schoolhouse Museum, The Lakeshore Guardian and the Michigan One-Room Schoolhouse Association.

Natural Health Classes Return in October

Barbara Ann Burns will be returning this fall to hold another series of classes for health conscious adults. Topics will include: Detoxing More, Foods, Gluten Free and Diabetes. Classes will be held from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. on October 16, 23, & 30 in the Senior Center main meeting room adjacent to the library. There will be limited seating, so we will be having a sign up sheet at the front desk of the library or you can call 989-658-8901 during normal business hours.
